Reading Strategies for
Parents to Use at Home

JCE Title I 2021

Reading Strategies

Share Books Every Day

Read with your child every day, even after he/she becomes an independent reader.

Visit The Library Early and Often

Public libraries are great resources for books, helpful advice about authors and illustrators, story times, and more. Make visiting the library part of your family's routine.

Reading Strategies

Jump-In Reading

Enjoy reading a story with family members by allowing each person to read a portion of the story. This technique motivates your child to read a longer text.

Selective Underlining/Highlighting

Helps your child understand the story's main idea and for organizing information from selections.

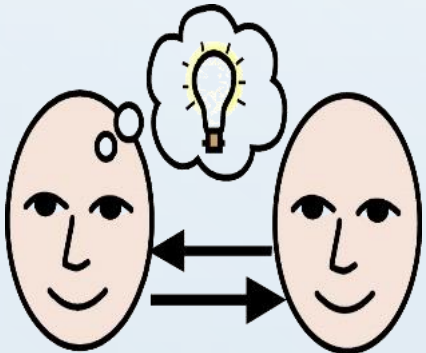

Reading Strategies

Sticky-Note Discussions

This works effectively after your child has read a selection, he/she uses sticky notes to mark the places he/she wants to talk about.

Read-and-Say-Something

This works effectively for difficult materials. Rather than having your child struggle alone with the meaning, discuss the information contained in the text.

Reading Strategies

Seed Discussions

Helps your child lead his/her own discussion by writing down one important thing about what he/she is reading.

Pre- and Post-Reading Journal Entries

Your child writes about what he/she knows before reading and then writes what he/she learned from his/her reading.

Reading Strategies

Dialogue Logs

After all members of the family write about a particular topic/story, trade logs and comment back to each person's response/information. This makes learning more social, and writers get a response right away.

Perspective Entries

Your child can take on the role of characters, animals, or famous people. This helps your child empathize with a character's feelings and problems.

Reading Strategies

Main Idea & Key Event/Details

Helps your child organize main ideas and details from reading assignments.

Reading Online Resources for Parents

The screenshot shows the website for Jacksonville Commons Elementary. The header includes the school logo and name, along with social media icons for Facebook and Twitter. A navigation bar contains links for Home, Our School, Our Teachers, and Academics. The Academics link is circled in red and labeled with a red '1.'. Below the navigation bar, a breadcrumb trail reads 'Home > Academics > Title I > Reading Online Resources for Parents'. The 'Reading Online Resources for Parents' link is circled in red and labeled with a red '3.'. A dropdown menu is open under the Academics link, with the 'Title I' option circled in red and labeled with a red '2.'. Below the dropdown, a banner for 'Reading Online Resources' features an illustration of books and apples, with the text 'Helping Your Child Become a Reader - U.S. Department of Education'.
